

April 21, 2009

In The Spotlight

Gabriela Yepes

NALIPster's short in Emerging Filmmaker Showcase at Cannes

Danzak, a short film directed and produced by NALIP member Gabriela Yepes, will be playing at the American Pavilion 2009 Emerging Filmmaker Showcase at the Cannes Film Festival. This event supports upcoming filmmakers by screening their films during the Festival while providing an opportunity for to connect with the global audience at Cannes. Danzak is one of the top ten films selected - out of 400 submissions.

Danzak will play on Saturday, May 16th, 2009, at the American Pavilion. Danzak tells the story of Nina, a 10-year old girl living in the slums of Lima, capital city of Peru, whose life changes dramatically when her father and Master Dancer asks her to fulfill his last wish. It is inspired on an Andean myth.